SANOZOL

LOTION AND SOAP.
POSITIVE CURE FOR ALL SKIN DISEASES.

The wonderful discovery of the famous specialist in skin diseases, A. J. Fulton, M. D., Brooklyn, N. Y. Sanazol treatment is external only.

SUFFERERS FROM
Eczema, Lupus, Herpes, Ringworm, Prurigo, Scrofuloderma, Skin Cancer, Pediculosis, Psoriasis, Erythema, Lichen, Syphilis, and all other forms of ulcerative, scaly and parasitic skin diseases find immediate relief and permanent cure by the use of Sanazol. It removes pimples and blackheads and cures sweaty or itching feet.

Some of the new famous cures by Sanazol treatment were fully described in the New York World of March 9 and the Brooklyn Daily Eagle of March 29, 1934.

August Newman of Enfield street, near Graves Place, Brooklyn, writes that he had been a sufferer from skin eruption for eight years called various names by different physicians. Finally he was induced, in sheer desperation, to try Sanazol. He enjoyed his first unbroken sleep after the first bottle of Sanazol. His reward for a conscientious treatment of this remedy for two months was a complete cure.

THE SOAP
has no equal. Its daily use without lotion will give your face and hands a perfect skin, restoring the defunct respiratory conditions of your skin to its normal health, producing the freshness of youth and a glow of health and beauty. Try it.

Those afflicted with itchy and scaly skin diseases suffer most during the weather. Avoid this by the use of Sanazol.

Write for testimonials and full particulars of Sanazol treatment (free of charge). Treatment requires combined use of lotion and soap. Sent on receipt of price or at druggists. Lotion, half pint, $1.00; Soap, 25c per cake or jar (3 cakes, 65c). Address Sanazol Laboratory, dept. B, 14 100-102 Elton St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

NEGROES CONTINUE TO BOYCOTT STREET CARS

AND BUT FEW ARE PATRONIZING THE CARS, ALTHOUGH THE WHITE PATRONAGE IS INCREASING.

The boycott of the street cars by the negroes of the city continues, and from present indications it will be kept up for several months, although all concede that the boycott will ultimately prove a failure, and the negroes will again begin to ride on the cars as heretofore.

The boycott is the result of the bill passed by the legislature compelling all street railway companies to provide separate accommodations for white and colored passengers. This law goes into effect on July 1st, and after that date the whites and blacks will be separated, each being given a compartment or separate car in accordance with the new law and suitable for the number of passengers of each race that are handled by the various lines.

There are some of the negroes of the new law. They take the stand that they do not care to mix up with the whites, and if the company affords them equal accommodations that is all they desire.

Others, however, do not take this view, and seem to be possessed of the idea that unless they can sit alongside of a white person in a car that the accommodations are not first-class.

The negro patronage, it was stated yesterday, has decreased to a considerable extent. This fact has been noticeable for some time, but it is also a noticeable fact that the increase in white patronage has been large, and shows that the whites approve of the new measure and many are riding on the cars who had heretofore walked rather than mix up with an undesirable class.

A number of negroes have been noticed on the cars, but in each case when they are seen by persons of their own race they are subjected to taunts and cries of "Jim Crow." This, however, has no effect upon the more intelligent class of negroes, who are satisfied that the company will provide accommodations sufficient for them.

Fish Pies in England.
In medieval England fish pies were a very favorite dish at Christmas time, and lamprey pies were regarded as a special luxury. The cost of such delicacies was very great. In 1314 the sheriff of Gloucester provided four for the royal table at a cost of £12 5s. 8d., a sum nearly equivalent to £120 at the present day. Those taken from the Severn were especially noted, and it became an annual custom for the city of Gloucester to send a lamprey pie to the king. There is a record of such complimentary presents being sent to Cromwell and to Lennox, the speaker of the last parliament. Owing to the municipal corporation act Gloucester's annual custom ceased in 1836, but in 1893 the mayor revived it and sent a pie to Queen Victoria at his own expense. His successors have followed his example.

"Lady" and "Woman."
As to the rather subtle question of "gentleman," "lady," "man" and "woman," there is a difference (writes a correspondent) between the sexes. A duke must always be a man, unless he be, for the purpose of the conversation, a "gentleman," with great emphasis on the word "gentleman."

Every man of gentleman's rank is a "man" always and in every social circumstance. But with women it is entirely a matter of the adjective. Without an adjective a woman is a "lady." Who ever asked, on hearing that a friend was to marry, "Who is the woman?" Nor do we say that we met a woman at dinner who told us so-and-so. But introduce the adjective and the "lady" is at once a pretty woman, a well dressed woman, rather a dull woman.—London Chronicle.

The Mystery of Health.
Whenever any one is released from jail or penitentiary after a long sentence we read that while he was in poor or downright bad health when he entered he comes out as hearty as a brick. Yet almost without exception jails and penitentiaries are insanitary, unless places, with no facilities for precautions usually taken by those who wish to get or keep healthy. The mystery lies in two words—regularity and diet. The first is perhaps the more important. Clocklike regularity; everything done on the second and on the same second every day; a recognition of the fact that the body is a machine. Then, as a supplement to this, a simple diet—plain, not too varied—enough to eat, but not too much.—Saturday Evening Post.

Cures For Witchery.
Rev. Joseph Doderidge in his "Notes of the Settlement and Indian Wars in Pennsylvania and Virginia," in that portion of the work treating of "Witchcraft" says: "The diseases of children supposed to be inflicted by witchcraft were those of dropsy of the brain and the rickets. These were diseases which could neither be accounted for nor cured, consequently they were ascribed to some supernatural agency. For the cure of diseases inflicted by witches the picture of the supposed witch was drawn on a stump or piece of board and shot at with a bullet containing a little bit of silver. This silver bullet transferred a painful and sometimes mortal spell on that part of the witch corresponding with the part of the picture struck by the bullet."

SLOW COLLECTION OF CITY TAXES

ALTHOUGH THE PENALTY UPON DELINQUENTS CONTINUES TO INCREASE.

Taxpayers in the city are now slow in settling up their taxes, and unless an improvement is noted within a short while those who are delinquent will find that the penalties for non-payment will cut a considerable figure in their accounts when they finally decide to make a settlement.

Up to a month since the collections made by Collector Oerting had been very good, he having collected over $60,000 out of about $72,000 assessed, and the prospects are that before the end of the month, or rather before the 15th of June this amount will be swelled to a considerable extent.

The good collections of previous months were probably due to the discounts allowed and penalties imposed. When the books first opened a discount was allowed each person paying taxes, and afterwards a penalty imposed. This penalty has now reached 3 per cent. On June 1st, there will be added three quarters of one per cent to this, and on June 15th, it will be increased another 10 per cent, making the total penalty at that time 13 3/4 per cent.

Lyons in Theater.

In South Wales when the people are pleased with the work of an actor they have a custom of showing their appreciation by singing hymns at the close of the performance. Henry Irving was once playing at Swansea when he was surprised to hear the audience burst into "Lead, Kindly Light," when he appeared before the curtain in response to a call. At the close of the engagement the great actor was deeply touched by the singing of "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," rendered in the most reverent manner.

Her Mind Made Up.

"Pa," said Miss Strong, "I wish you would stay in this evening. Mr. Tardey will want to speak to you."

"So he has really proposed at last, eh?"

"No," replied the daughter, with an air of determination, "but he will tonight."—Catholic Standard and Times.
